

Aaron and Janis (Couples in Trouble) (Volume 3)

Aaron sat across the campfire from Janis. It was the third anniversary of his wife's passing. This was the place where they celebrated her life and tried to gain some comfort so they could go on. Today was the day Aaron would find out that their two lives were in danger for reasons unknown and from someone with overwhelming greed on his mind and an old score to settle with Aaron's family. Janis looked across the flames at the man who had been married to her sister. She thought about Gracie's last words before she died. Janis, now you will only have each other. I wish for you to reach out to Aaron and make him fall in love with you as I know you love him. You need each other and I need to know you will find happiness together. Faced with danger at every turn, will they survive? Will Gracie's wishes for her husband and her sister be realized or will one or both of them perish?
